EASTECC2010

May 25-27, 2010

Eastern States Exposition

West Springfield, Massachusetts

What's the prescription for manufacturing success?

Advanced technology?

Management savvy?

Working lean?

New markets?

Most likely all of the above.

And EASTECC delivers on all counts.

If you want to be part of new supply chains, EASTECC should be your first stop. Whether it's lean principles, green technologies, or growth industries, EASTECC delivers strategies that keep your manufacturing alive.

This May,
just one event
delivers it all.
